CHAMPIONSHIP
RIVER OAKS COUNTRY CLUB

2019 US Clay Storylines

Triple Threat

Two-time defending champion Steve Johnson returns to River Oaks bidding to be just the third player to three-peat in the 100-plus year history of the U.S. Men's Clay Court Championship. Johnson would be the first player to win three in a row since Bobby Riggs did so from 1936-38. Bill Tilden owns the tournament record, having won six straight titles from 1922-27. The only three-peat in the 85 years of River Oaks tournaments is Betsy Grant (1935-37). Only 10 active ATP players have won three straight titles at a single event, and he is one of five players with the chance to win a third straight this season. In 2018, Johnson became the first player to win consecutive US Clay titles since Andy Roddick in 2001-02.

Past Champs & Finalists

A trio of former US Clay winners are in the 2019 field: two-time defending champion Steve Johnson, 2008 champ Marcel Granollers and 2007 winner Ivo Karlovic. They are joined by two-time finalist Sam Querrey (2010, 2015) and 2018 runner-up Tennys Sandgren.

Family Ties

One player in the field has ties to a past River Oaks International champion. Christain Ruud, the father and coach of 20-year-old Casper Ruud, won the tournament in 1996 and was the runner-up in 2001. Christian also appeared in the US Men's Clay Courts twice, reaching the semifinals in Orlando in 1999 and the second round at Houston's Westside in 2001.

Nice to Meet You

Seven players are making their US Clay debut: Hugo Dellien, Daniel Elahi Galan, Christian Garin, Cameron Norrie, Pejda Krstin, Casper Ruud and Bernard Tomic.

Winners Circle

Two players in the US Clay field have already won titles in 2018: Tennys Sandgren won in Auckland, Reilly Opelka in New York. Through 20 ATP events this season, each has been a unique winner, save for Roger Federer who won in both Dubai and Miami.

Two Decade Difference

The ages of US Clay participants this year range 20 years. Ivo Karlovic, who reached the semifinals at River Oaks last year, is the oldest player in the field at 40. The youngest in the field is 20-year-old Casper Ruud.

International Attraction

There are players representing a total of 24 countries playing at River Oaks this year, including players representing 14 different countries in the singles field. Since US Clay came to River Oaks in 2008, players from 58 different nations have participated in the tournament.

Home Cooking

There are 11 Americans in the field this year, which makes the fourth consecutive time and sixth time in seven years with a double-digit tally of Americans. Five of those Americans are seeded this year.

Junior Success

Eight players in the US Clay singles field combined to win a total of nine Junior Grand Slam titles. The victories include two Australian Opens (Janko Tipsarevic - 2001, Bernard Tomic - 2008), three French Opens (Bjorn Fratangelo - 2011, Christian Garin - 2013), three Wimbledons (Jeremy Chardy - 2005, Noah Rubin, 2014, Reilly Opelka - 2015) and a pair of US Opens (Tomic - 2009, Taylor Fritz - 2015).

Collegiate Competitors

A number of US Clay players had successful college careers before embarking as a pro. The field includes three NCAA singles champions (Mackenzie McDonald, UCLA - 2015; Steve Johnson, USC - 2011-12; Bradley Klahn, Stanford - 2010; and Bob Bryan, Stanford - 1998), while Noah Rubin (Wake Forest) was the 2015 runner-up. NCAA doubles titles were claimed by Bryan with his brother Mike at Stanford in 1998, by Austin Krajicek for Texas A&M in 2011 (with Jeff Dadamo), and McDonald in 2015 (with Martin Redlicki). The Bryans (1997-98) and Johnson (2009-12) won NCAA team titles. Lastly, Cameron Norrie was the No. 1 player in the nation while he represented TCU in 2017.

Injured List

Nick Kyrgios (knee), Yoshihito Nishioka (back) and John Isner (foot) withdrew prior to the event with injury.

About the Tournament

The Fayez Sarofim & Co. U.S. Men's Clay Court Championship is an ATP Tour 250 event. It is the only ATP event played on clay in North America. This year is the 109th edition of the U.S. Men's Clay Court Championship, which started in 1910. The tournament has been held in 21 different U.S. cities, and has called Houston home since moving to Westside Tennis Club in 2001. This year marks the 12th time River Oaks Country Club has hosted the tournament. River Oaks first hosted tournament tennis in 1931, including an event on the World Championship Tennis circuit from 1970 into the mid-1980s. A prestigious prize money tournament in the ensuing years, River Oaks became home to this ATP event in 2008. This will be the 85th tournament contested at River Oaks.

The Ernest Langston Sportsmanship Trophy

The Langston Trophy is presented annually to a current or former player or players who demonstrates great sportsmanship during the competition. The award is named for Ernest Langston, who served as River Oaks International Tournament Chairman from 1946-49 and 1952-56. The award was first presented at the River Oaks International in 1957.

When the U.S. Men's Clay Court Championship moved to River Oaks Country Club in 2008, the tradition of honoring an athlete with the Langston Trophy continued. The award has been given 62 times to a total of 66 different individuals. Below is the list of the distinguished winners of the Langston Trophy:
